

CCMU Archives 2012-2013 School Year Fall 2012

14 October 2012:

Cadets Jordan Walker, Trent Kirkpatrick, and Tyler Toppenberg competed in the challenging Run and Gun in the Sun biathlon 2 Gun match. Competitors must run 6.5 miles with all equipment and weapons necessary to complete 5 challenging courses of fire with the rifle and pistol. Cadet Kirkpatrick took 16th, Cadet Walker took 23rd, and Cadet Toppenberg took 32nd; there were a total of 74 competitors at the match. This was the CCMU's first time at this competition, and it certainly won't be the last!

28 October 2012:

CCMU Takes 2nd at the SPP Northeast Fall Regional Match in Boston, MA, narrowly being edged out by the University of Vermont in centerfire competition.

- 1st: University of Vermont
- 2nd: Corps of Cadets MU
- 3rd: Coast Guard Academy
- 4th: Harvard University

Spring 2013

2 February 2013:

CCMU takes home 1st place over University of Florida in both the Centerfire and Rimfire divisions of the 1st Annual Scholastic Pistol Program's Southwest Regional Championship hosted by the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets and sponsored by GLOCK.

3 March 2013:

CCMU spends the weekend at Angel Fire Shooting School learning from former Army Ranger Sniper Butch Engel and 3-Gun world competitors Benny Hill, Ty Gentry, and JK Rowsey before competing in a Tactical Shotgun competition at the Corpus Christi Rifle & Pistol Club.

18 March 2013:

CCMU took home 2nd place rimfire and 3rd place centerfire at the Scholastic Pistol Program National Championships in Ft. Benning, Georgia.

Freshman Zach Williams was top shooter at competition with an overall time of 48.92 seconds and Senior Matt Hawes brought home an extremely close 2nd at 48.93

Pictured:

Team makes a side trip to visit the USS Alabama while returning from the Scholastic Pistol Program National Championship in Ft. Benning Georgia.

23 March 2013:

CCMU Cadets make a respectable first showing at the annual Joint Service Academy Combat Weapons Competition.

The team competed in the 9 stage 3-Gun competition hosted by Smith & Wesson in Springfield MA pulling in close with the Service Academies' teams. Zach Williams '16 secured a spot as #5 overall in competition. Taking home a volume of new knowledge and experience the team looks forward to preparing for the challenge and returning next year.

23 March 2013:

CCMU presented with Joint Service Academy Combat Weapons Challenge Coins by Medal of Honor recipient Sammy Davis at competition awards banquet.

20 April 2013:

CCMU kicks back with its first annual BBQ. The Day was comprised of good food, friendly competition, and presentation of awards.

The team presented Military Advisor GySgt Parker a M1 Garand as a token of our appreciation for his tireless efforts and limitless support.

24 April 2013:

CCMU recognized as "Most Outstanding Team" at Corps of Cadets Athletic's Banquet. Plaque Presented by Commandant Brigadier General Ramirez, TAMU Men's Basketball Coach Billy Kennedy, and CCA Executive Director Colonel Crawford

